

09th May 2025Mawingu Service Contingency Plan – Deployment of SEASPAN CALICANTO

Dear Valued Customer,

At Maersk, we are committed to providing reliable and efficient logistics solutions, and keeping you informed of any operational updates that may impact your supply chain.

Due to ongoing geopolitical condition and restrictions affecting cross-border flows, Mawingu service is temporarily suspend from Pakistan.

To maintain service continuity, Maersk has deployed three dedicated sailings of the SEASPAN CALICANTO, operating from Port Qasim to Salalah, as contingency, will share the alternate product as soon as possible.

The first sailing is scheduled to depart from Port Qasim Terminal, offering continued support for cargo movement during this interim period.
